

Archie started mainstream school in September 2010. He was very proud to wear his first uniform, we had tears of pride.

Another very big milestone for Archie. Archie has settled in well and has made some wonderful friends.